Discounts, Tuition Assistance, and Scholarships:

PCA offers discounts for siblings, ministry, and military/first responder families in Grades K-12. Ministry and Military/First Responder discount applications are due by May 1 and can be found at Tuition Discount Forms

Tuition assistance and scholarships are based on family need. More information regarding tuition assistance can be found at Tuition Assistance Information. Scholarship applications are due by May 1 and can be found at Scholarship Applications

Should a student withdraw or be dismissed from PCA for any reason, parents are responsible for tuition payments for the entire academic semester, plus a $200.00 withdrawal fee. Payments will be drafted from the online payment system until the tuition obligation is fulfilled. Parents may be relieved of tuition for any future semesters as long as the dismissal or withdrawal occurs before the first day of the semester. Should a student enroll midsemester, tuition obligation will be pro-rated weekly based on the start date. Application Fees and Tuition Deposits are non-refundable regardless of the number of days a student attends PCA.
